HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

There's no place like home for the holidays, but Melpar employees will tell you there are lots of other places, too. Kathy Harrington will fill her home with guests as her parents and brother visit from Coventry, England. They will remain in the states until after the stork arrives for Kathy on or about New Years Day.

Herb Mueck flies home to Germany to be with his parents and then will tour Switzerland and visit friends in France.

Essie Hamm goes back home to Detroit, Michigan and Swede Boreen will spend the holidays with relatives in his native Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Charlie Thurber will take his wife, Chris, home to Manchester, Connecticut. After Christmas, they will try the ski runs in Vermont.

Don Trell will spend Christmas with his children in Youngstown, Ohio; Glen Buchkoski heads for his parent's home in Penn. John Chipps is taking his wife home to Raleigh, North Carolina and Gerry Kagey plans to celebrate the holiday on a fishing boat out of St. Petersburg, Florida.
